

SUBSCRIBE!

View as Web Page Unsubscribe

1 week from tonight...
Moving Body Salons!
Friday, January 5th

It's a new year of live music, dance, spoken word, film,
and artistry of new kinds,
with noshing, drinking, schmoozing
and more...

Friday, January 5th
show starts 7 pm
doors open for noshing, drinking, schmoozing at 6:30 pm

LOTS of MUSIC! and Dance and Words Performed by

Truffles with Sparrow - poetry/music
Kris Cherry - singer/songwriter
Brooke Campbell - singer/songwriter
Norman Salant - singer/songwriter
Mary Abrams - dance

Suggested Donation:
$25

All amounts large and small are meaningful.

Can't attend & want to support
MBR & the Salon?
Send a Venmo donation:
@MovingBodyResources

Performer bios:

Truffles with Sparrow is a poet, activist, educator and musician. He is a gossip columnist for the Phoenicia Times, a contributing editor to Chronogram, a substitute teacher, and the author of three poetry books through Soft Skull Press. As a member of the New York-based literary group The Unbearables, Sparrow has also published chapbooks in collaboration with the St. Mark's Poetry Project, and he has served as the editor for the literary journal Big Fish. Sparrow can be heard, along with his band Foamola, on the poetry compilation Poemfone: New Word Order(Tomato).

<http://www.poetsparrow.com/>

Brooke

Campbell is a songwriter performing original folk music with jazz and country inflections. She has collaborated with a range of artists, received radio play and a fellowship from the Speranza Foundation. Brooke possesses a shivery, breathless voice and deep-toned acoustic guitar playing that is genuine, honest, heartbreaking, stirring and satisfying. "She's a talented performer who has obviously only scratched the surface of what she's capable of. Ms. Campbell's got it goin' on so far," Impose magazine. During the pandemic, Brooke offered music virtually to Unitarian churches across the country & is thrilled to be performing in the Salon.

<https://brookecampbellmusic.com/>

Kris Cherry

originally and currently hails from the Bronx, NY. He is an alumni of Pace University's musical theater program. Most recently he has released his 2nd studio album "Wonderworld" on all streaming platforms as well as other EPs and collaborations with other artists. His favorite recent credits include the Queerchella Music Festival in March and June of this year and Sofar Sounds Miami last year.

Mary Abrams dances, writes, draws, dreams, and runs a business inside-out, outside-in, all around, and through life. Her 36-year tour living in NYC includes choreography and performance at Danspace Project at St. Mark's Church, Dia Center for the Arts, Dixon Place, Ethnic Folk Arts, Movement Research at Judson Church, other venues she can't remember, streets around Wall Street, the waterfronts, and most currently Salons at MBR. Starting out with tap, jazz, & ballet in Mason City, IA, Mary holds a BA in Dance from St. Olaf College and for 30 years has been immersing herself in the fluid breath/sound movement inquiry of Continuum and other somatic movement practices.

Norman Salant

is a NYC songwriter and singer whose songs reflect the most moving elements of life. Melodious, intricate, lyrical wordplay, large themes, poetic imagery, abstract impressions; above all honest and somehow modern. Norman's songs are deceptively complex, seeming to reconstitute all the music he's ever heard and played, inclusive even of his former saxophone career (he appears on The Residents and Romeo Void albums), from the Beatles to Coltrane, from Dylan to Philip Glass, from Byrne to Bowie, and turning it into something fresh and new. Pop, yes, folk, yes, avant-garde, perhaps; radically different than any particular genre might produce. As we emerge in this post-pandemic world, Norman's music is particularly worth listening to. www.normansalant.com

RSVP or Questions...
mary@movingbodyresources.com
212-206-7542

Moving Body Resources | 112 West 27th Street, Ste. 400 | New York City, NY 10001 | <http://www.movingbodyresources.com>

Subscribe • Preferences • Send to a Friend • Unsubscribe • Report Spam

